MAY 31, 1898.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. WARNER, from the Committee on the Revision of the Laws, submitted the following

REPORT.

[To accompany Senate Con. Res. No. 28.]

Your committee respectfully report back Senate concurrent resolution No. 28 with an amendment striking out all after the word "date," in line 8, and inserting in lieu thereof the words "a codification of the laws, other than criminal, and a code of procedure thereunder, for the District of Alaska," so as to make it read:

Resolved by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That the commission heretofore appointed, pursuant to the act of June fourth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, to revise and codify the criminal and penal laws of the United States be, and is hereby, directed to prepare, and through the Attorney-General submit to Congress at the earliest practicable date, a codification of the laws, other than criminal, and a code of procedure thereunder, for the District of Alaska."

As so amended, the committee recommend that the same be passed.
